

The fight in New York between Gunboat Smith and Charlie Miller, scheduled for Oct. 31, has been postponed to Nov. 11.

Patsy Brannigan goes against a real fighter tonight in Pittsburgh when he mixes with Kid Williams of Baltimore.

Frank Chance has been in the American League one season and to all appearances hasn't accomplished much, but appearances are sometimes as deceptive as an Ed Walsh spitball.

What Chance has done will be shown in 1914. This year he was handicapped by falling heir to a misfit lot of players and the failure of men from whom he had a right to expect much.
